Passover

The Word is Truth Ministries

Leviticus 23:5 In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's passover.

1. The Passover festival is representative of the Israelites being commanded to take a lamb and place its blood around their door posts in the evening so that the slaying angel would “Passover their house during the night and not kill their first born as it did the Egyptians first born’ Exodus 12:13.

On the following day they had to leave in haste taking with them the dough which did not have time to rise.

This is represented through Yahshua who held His Passover meal in the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month. Held at evening for the which Yahshua broke bread (unleaven bread).

1 Corinthians 11:24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

When YHWH freed Israel from Egypt, He told His people that for “seven days you shall eat unleavened bread” (Exodus 12:15).

Exodus 12:39 further explains, “And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they had brought out of Egypt; for it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared provisions for themselves.”

Leavening is an agent such as yeast that causes bread dough to rise. And the leavening process takes time. The Israelites had no time to spare when they left Egypt, so they baked and ate flat bread. What started out as a necessity continued for a week. God appropriately named this time the Feast of Unleavened Bread (Leviticus 23:6), The Days of Unleavened Bread (Acts 12:3).

1 Corinthians 5:7 Get rid of the old yeast, that may be a new unleavened batch, as you really are. For Christ, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed. 8. Therefore let us keep the festival, not with the old bread, leaven with malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and of truth. Passover:

LET US KEEP THE FESTIVAL. How many Christians read and Passover this verse? Where did Easter’s Good Friday and Sunday come from?

The Festival was a 7 day festival. Paul said let us keep the festival! Yahshua/Jesus, Paul and the Apostles kept this festival throughout the entirety of the new covenant. It is a New Covenant Festival. We are commanded that we keep this feast.

Yet Christianity claims it is just for the Jews? Paul was the apostle who took the gospel to the gentiles and He kept it and told the church to keep it.

It began at evening of the 14th day of the first month and continued for 7 days.

Verse 7 Get rid of the old yeast, that may be a new unleavened batch, as you really are. For Christ, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed.

Yeast represents sin/lawlessness. Yeast has a leavening property to cause the dough to rise, puff up.

Get rid of the sin/lawlessness so that you may be a new batch.

A new covenant keeping church that, are redeemed through the Mashiach our Passover lamb.

As the New Covenant church whether or not you think that we are to keep the festival of the Israelites coming out of Egypt known as the Passover represented by the blood of the lamb on their door posts, we are commanded by Paul to keep it because Yahshua is our Passover lamb. His blood is on our door posts to keep us so that we don't die in the curse of Egypt.

Question: How long were they commanded to keep it?

Leviticus 23: ⁸ But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days:

The new covenant church were clearly keeping this seven day festival. Luke 2:41, Matthew 26:17.

Exodus 12: ¹⁴ And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever. Answer: FOREVER!

The prophetic fulfillment of the Feast of Passover on Wednesday is the only day of the week that supports all of the Biblical accounts of the crucifixion at the time that Jesus was in the grave "three days and three nights" (Matthew 12:40).

According to the Law of Moses, the day following Passover was specified to be the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. That day was always a High Sabbath day, a day of rest in which no work was to be done, in the same way the weekly Sabbath was observed on the seventh day.

Clearly Passover was on a specific day of the month which meant each year it would fall on different days, in a 7 year cycle, therefore it was deemed a high Sabbath which is not the weekly 7 day Sabbath but a festival high Sabbath day.

So the particular year that Yahshua was crucified it had to be on Wednesday to fit with the day of resurrection.

Yahshua was removed from the cross Wednesday evening.

John 19 : 31 "The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away."

John clearly shows that the Sabbath that the Jews were concerned about was a High Sabbath. The festival celebration was a HIGH Sabbath, Known as the feast of Unleaven Bread.

The trials of Jesus/Yahshua

The Last Supper was held the Wednesday evening.

Most commentaries seem to indicate that Jesus/Yahshua was seized in the Garden of Gethsemane by the Jewish religious leaders at approximately midnight. His first trial was in the house of Caiaphas at approximately one o'clock in the morning, and the second attempt to incriminate Him occurred an hour or two later—around

Thurs Day	Thur Night	Fri Day	Fri Night	Sabbath Day	Sat Night

two or three o'clock in the morning. Then the trial before the Sanhedrin took place that morning somewhere between three and four. At this time of the year in the latitude of Jerusalem, dawn begins about four a.m. and the sun rises around 5:30. The trial before the Sanhedrin resulted in a unanimous verdict of death, but that verdict had to be affirmed during daylight hours in order to be legal. Therefore it had to be reaffirmed in daylight. The Sanhedrin did this when it reassembled soon after sunrise.

John 20:1 Now the first day of the week Mary Magdalene went to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb.

Matthew 12:40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

This has a far deeper meaning than His body being in the tomb for 3 days and 3 nights.

He went to the belly of the earth for 3 days and 3 nights. Everyone is trying to make the time in the tomb fit to what He said but I feel He is speaking of what He was about to accomplish by His spirit in Sheol preaching to the spirits in prison where he went into the lowest depths of hell. He overcame satan in the pit of hell snatching from him the keys to death and he burst forth out of that place triumphant over sin and death.

He commanded His spirit to leave His body whilst on the cross. So we take the time from the moment He said it is finished.

We know from the story of Lazarus that there was a gulf between paradise and prison. He promised the thief He would see Him in paradise that day.

Luke 16:22-26

He went to hell for 3 days and 3 nights. He was as Jonah in the belly of the whale. He was in the belly of this earth.

Theologians have spent countless hours of debate trying to make the tomb fit to the words spoken by Yahshua.

Squabbling over the time of day and the differences of John and Luke stating differing times.

Bare in mind, it went into total darkness as He commanded His spirit into Elohim's hands. The earth shook and it was thunder and catastrophic events. The temple veil ripped in two from top to bottom.

We also have Roman time from midnight to midnight, biblical times that begins the day at sunrise around 6am and ends it at sunset and Jewish fables and traditions making a day from sunset to sunset.

It matters not what the time was. What matters is what He accomplished.

Yahshua's spirit went to the centre of the earth into a pit of evil beyond comprehension of every of the most demonic and wicked spirits that had ever lived on earth. From Philistine giants to the most murderous and evil black magic blood curdling demon possessed, heathenistic monsters to the evil sexually perverted of Sodom and Gomorrah and they all knew who he was. They were a writhing cess pool of the worst most horrific creatures that ever walked this earth and he faced off with them all. Those who hated His people Israel with a vengeance, of those who hated our forefathers.

He went there for us, to conquer every sin, every thought that we and the entire world have ever conjured up in evil minds and hearts.

The beating and scourging and nailed to the tree could have only been trivial although absolute unthinkable pain, to what He faced in the depths of the belly of the earth.

Victory over Death and Sin.

He burst forth from there and brought with Him the spirits from paradise, the righteous who had died and gone to Sheol. The heavens were now opened and we no longer go below when we die, our spirits go home to Heaven above to be with Him. Where once they could not go because no unclean thing can enter heaven and His work on the cross reached beyond the earth through the expanse of heaven above.

High Sabbaths during Festivals.

There are several high Sabbaths included throughout the 7 festivals of the Lord. They are not to be confused with the weekly Sabbath.

The day before the high Sabbath is preparation day as is each Friday a preparation day for the Sabbath the following day.

We see in the following comments by Paul that he is speaking of High Sabbaths, Colossians 2:16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

Many Christians take this that the weekly Sabbath is no longer relevant. However that could not be further from the truth. The above scripture is speaking of, new moon's, holy days which are High Sabbaths that fall during the festivals and new moon observance.

Some of the high Sabbath's are predetermined on the new moon, unlike the 7th day Sabbath which falls every seventh day regardless and is a memorial of the creation. Elohim worked 6 days of creation and rested on the 7th. He made it a Holy Convocation and the 4th commandment tells us to keep this day for rest and worship.

We need to rightly divide the word and understand the significant meanings the way that they are intended. We are in danger if we don't.

Paul is explaining and telling us not to let any man judge what you should eat or drink at these festivals and high days.

In other words don't let Jewish ritual be a focus of the high Sabbaths.

Jewish tradition has much false worship connected to it.

Clearly we are to keep the Festival because In following scripture Paul is telling us to keep the feast and do it with sincerity and truth, he makes sure to link it to the leaven so that you can see he is defiantly speaking of the 7 day Passover festival which requires we eat unleavened bread and not normal bread with yeast and leaven, for the whole 7 days of the festival.

1 Corinthians 5:8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Carefully consider this and keep it in mind as you read further. Nowhere in the New Covenant do we see the Apostles exchanging sabbath to Sunday because of the resurrection, which is the reason many Christians claim Sunday became the new sabbath.

They have no scriptural proof, in fact as we will see this is completely false.

As shown by the apostles after the resurrection they continued to observe the biblical Sabbath and even Paul when converting Greeks taught them on the seventh day Sabbath.

Nowhere in the bible do we see observance of Easter or lent?
Jesus/Yahshua and the apostles kept the Passover, first fruits and un-leaven festivals.

The festivals and the manner in which they are to be observed have been replaced in modern churches for Good Friday and Easter Sunday by Christianity. This was not the case during the New Testament Church era. Elohim, “with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning” (James 1:17), does not change (Malachi 3:6). The Israelites received two laws from Moses: the law of Moses, that of ordinances and ceremonies; and the Law of God, embodied in the Ten Commandments, which is an expression of YWHY character.

If YWHY does not change, neither will His Law. “My covenant I will not break, nor alter the word that has gone out of My lips” (Psalm 89:34).”

I know that everything Elohim does will endure forever; nothing can be added to it and nothing taken from it” (Ecclesiastes 3:14).

“The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy. They are steadfast for ever and ever, done in faithfulness and uprightness” (Psalm 111:7, 8).

In the New Covenant, the seventh day of the week is called the Sabbath; it is mentioned 58 times. The first day of the week is mentioned eight times. It is simply called the first day of the week, and it is always differentiated from the Sabbath.

This in itself is evidence for the continued validity of the seventh-day Sabbath.

They continued observing Passover with a new significance and understanding. We read Paul's comments on the Passover observance...

Luke 22:15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

1 Corinthians 11:23-30 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Yahshua the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

Paul is telling us that Yahshua took bread. He kept the Passover meal the evening of the 14th day of the 1st month.

VERSE 24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

Yahshua instituted a memorial by breaking the bread and referencing it to His body broken for us. HE commanded that you do this in remembrance of Him. In the past the bread was broken in remembrance of the Israelites leaving in haste with unleaven bread.

VERSE 25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, this cup is the new covenant in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

VERSE 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

Clearly the taking of bread and wine is not a weekly ritual as the church seems to have adopted.

The breaking of bread and taking of wine is a memorial every Passover of the Lords body and blood shed for us.

VERSE 27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

A warning of unworthiness will bring dire consequences and put those who partake in any inappropriate manner under the curse and guilt of His death.

VERSE 28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

This is not an Easter Sunday ritual by any means and those who are partaking of this in an ungodly and unholy ritual bring damnation for not discerning the Lords body and rightly dividing and understanding the significance of the memorial.

It is an annual memorial in honour of the death and resurrection.

VERSE 29 For he that eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

VERSE 30 For this cause, many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

Do you think that observing it in a different manner to what Yahshua and the Apostles did will not matter? That was a very firm warning?

Paul went to great lengths to tell you that those who do not observe it as they have been shown are weak and sickly and asleep?

We are commanded to prove all things, so let us continue; When we look further into this subject, we know what Paul said in regards to the observance of the Passover.

1 Corinthians 5:8 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Paul very clearly puts the feast of unleaven with the Passover observance. He then admonishes us to keep the feast of unleaven with sincerity and truth.

When was Passover 7 day festival abandoned and replaced?

Roman Catholic Church changed the Sabbath day and removed the Lord's Festivals.

The following is taken from Roman Catholic historical works.

The Roman Emperor Constantine I, in "Codex Justinianus," lib. 3, tit. 12,3; trans. in Phillip Schaff, History of the Christian Church, Vol. 3, p. 380. 6

“Gradually the influence and power of the Roman Church grew, supported by political and civil authorities with their power. The biblical feasts of the Lord were removed and replaced with holidays of Easter and Christmas. Seventh Day Sabbath-keeping dwindled until there was hardly a remnant left, scattered and persecuted. So, the first contributory factor for the adoption of Sunday instead of the Sabbath was the assimilation of our Saviour to the Sun, even the Sun as deity, Him being made into Christos Helios, Christ the True Sun, this is Rome’s sun god deity and sun god worship which was counterfeited into the church.

They called Yahshua the Eternal Sun-god.

Exchanged His name from

‘The son of God.’

Sun-god idolatry of the Roman Catholic Religion.

Exodus 20:4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any-thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

When truth is not cherished as it should be, YHWH removes it for safe keeping. When early Christians compromised, began embracing paganism, YWYH Himself caused the sabbaths and His feasts to be forgotten.

Hosea 2:11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

In the Convert's Catechism of Catholic Doctrine, they admit openly to be the ones who changed the Sabbath to Sunday of which there is no biblical instruction to do so.

Interview with Bishop of the Roman Catholic religion... Rev. Stephen Keenan, (1851), p. 174. 7

Q. Which is the Sabbath day?

A. Saturday is the Sabbath day.

Q. Why do we observe Sunday instead of Saturday?

A. We observe Sunday instead of Saturday because the Catholic Church, in the Council of Laodicea, (AD 336) transferred the solemnity from Saturday to Sunday....

Q. Why did the Catholic Church substitute Sunday for Saturday?

A. The Church substituted Sunday for Saturday, because Christ rose from the dead on a Sunday, and the Holy Ghost descended upon the Apostles on a Sunday.

Q. By what authority did the Church substitute Sunday for Saturday?

A. The Church substituted Sunday for Saturday by the plenitude of that divine power which Jesus Christ bestowed upon her! —Rev. Peter Geiermann, C.S.S.R., (1946), p. 50. H

Here they speak of the authority given them claiming it was given them by Jesus Christ to change the day, thus declaring themselves to be god here on earth.

They openly tell us they removed the biblical festivals and replaced with Christmas and Easter which are both their pagan celebrations.

Catholic admission of changing the sabbath and feasts.

Openly claiming they had the power to institute and change Gods commandments on earth.

Therefore setting them-selves up as god of this earth.

Paul warned that a false church would change the day of Elohim's rest and told us if it were to change that Yahshua Himself would have told us. He did not so therefore we are to keep the seventh day Sabbath.

Romans 4:8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

VERSE 9: There remains therefore a rest to the people of God.

VERSE 10: For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Very plainly put. Paul speaks of the day of Sabbath rest. He aligns it to Elohim's work and then rested and ceased from His own works. That is unmistakably speaking of the Sabbath Rest.

Only one being puts himself as god on this earth and that is satan.

He rules it through false religions and doctrines.

YHWH warned that a blasphemous power would "seek to change times and laws," in the book of Daniel 7:25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

Catholic Church openly admits to changing it, even boasts about it. In a sermon at the Council of Trent in 1562, the Archbishop of Reggia, Caspar del Fossa, claimed that the Catholic Church's whole authority is based upon the fact that they changed the Sabbath to Sunday.

Does this not fulfil the prophecies of Daniel and Paul? Thus began the tradition of men to worship on Sunday and to remove the festivals that were to be celebrated forever, it seems the protestant churches just followed the false teachings.

It seems that Christians are still not convinced and accuse anyone who tries to show them the truth of the bible of being a SDA which is a false religion even though it has the day correct it is unbiblical on many doctrines.

You cannot be following false doctrines of any kind. They did not do that in the New Covenant Church they were of one accord. Acts 2:42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

Note they continued steadfastly in the Apostles doctrine. We cannot say that today of the Christian church. It is not steadfast in the apostle's doctrine or they would be keeping the seventh day Sabbath and the festivals of the Lord but instead they are scattered among multiple denominations with beliefs systems that do not resemble the early church teachings.

FESTIVAL of FIRST FRUITS. Resurrection!

Leviticus 23:11 11 'He shall wave the sheaf before YHVH for you to be accepted; on the day after the sabbath the priest shall wave it. The Scripture reads that it is to take place the day after the Sabbath.

Yahshua was the first fruits offering the day after the Sabbath.

1 Corinthians 15:20 But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. 21For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man.... Yahshua instructed Mary to touch Him not as He had not yet ascended to the Father.

He as High priest had to be waved before YHWH.

John 20:17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Later that day He invited them to touch Him.

The Feast of First Fruits. Jesus/Yashua fulfilled this feast by being the First Fruits of the dead.

He was resurrected sometime after the Sabbath.

1 Corinthians 15:20 20 But now Messiah has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who are asleep.

1 Corinthians 15:23 23 But each in his own order: Messiah the first fruits, after that those who are Messiah's at His coming.

Mark 16:1–2 1 When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, so that they might come and anoint Him.

2 Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.

Yahshua rested on the Sabbath in the tomb and rose after the weekly Sabbath.

It was also prophesied that He would be in the earth three days & nights. When Yahshua was asked for a sign, He gave them the sign of Jonah. Matthew 12:39.

In order for Yahshua to fulfil all these prophecies, He must have died on the day of, (Unleaven Feast) being without leaven or sin, and He remained in the grave three days and nights.

Thereafter, in order for Him to fulfil the Feast of First fruits, being the first fruits of the dead, He was resurrected some, time after dark on the Sabbath and Mary came on the first day of the week to find He was risen and the tomb empty.

Christendom teaches to observe Good Friday regarding Christ's death and Easter Sunday regarding Christ's resurrection.

However, that is only 2 nights or less depending on the time he resurrected.

What the Bible really teaches about the time of Christ's death and resurrection is a LITTLE KNOWN FACT.

Yahshua himself said that he would be "three days and three nights in the heart of the earth"

The way his death and resurrection is commonly taught by religions is not correct according to the Bible.

Bread and Wine at Passover.

We take the bread and the wine of Passover on the evening meal on the 14th day of the first month. The western calendar correlates this to mid, March - mid April.

“Do this in remembrance of Me” remembering our deliverance from bondage by the blood of the Lamb (as Israel was delivered from Egypt in the Exodus).

Following the Passover meal on the fifteenth day of the 1st month is a High Sabbath (Unleaven Feast), Crucifixion Day.

We continue to eat bread for seven days ye must eat unleavened bread” (Lev. 23:6). Christ, “the Bread of Life,” we demonstrate a continuous keeping of this feast, which is exactly our instruction from the Apostle Paul: “Therefore, let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth”

(I Cor. 5:8). • Passover is celebrated by eating matzah (unleaven bread) and maror (bitter herbs).

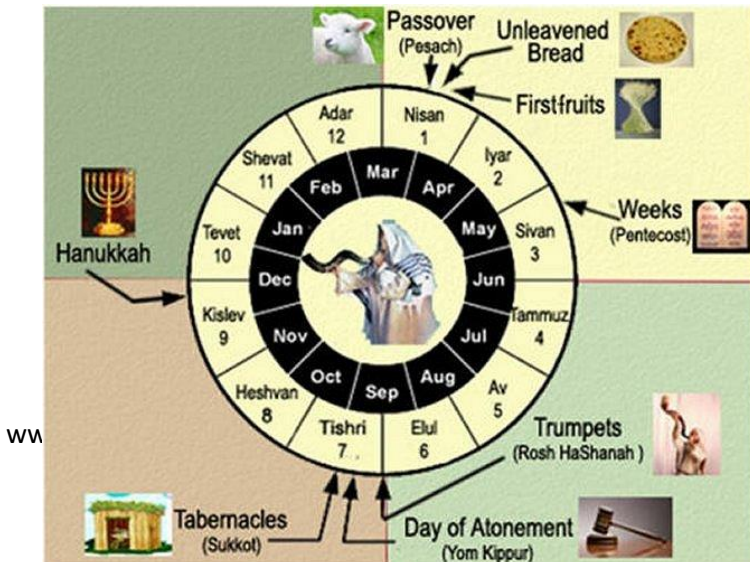

• For the duration of the 7 days of Passover, chametz (leaven) is strictly avoided.

First Fruits is another High Day and it falls the day of the resurrection.

Bread, and first fruits, the whole week was referred to as “Passover.” The holidays were (and still are) considered a single celebration. This explains John 18:28. The Jewish leaders had already eaten the Passover proper, but there still remained other sacrifices to be made and meals to be eaten. They were unwilling to defile themselves (Pilate’s palace contained leaven) because it would disqualify them from participating in the remainder of the week’s ceremonies (see Leviticus 23:8). Thursday – Passover proper. The lamb is killed, and Jesus and His disciples eat the Passover meal in the upper room. Friday – the Day of Preparation. Jesus is tried and executed (although never convicted).

The Jews continue their “Passover” celebrations with the chagigah, offerings made during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. We see Paul preaching until midnight the last night of the Passover celebration which is the custom of Jews to read scripture until midnight in commemoration of Israelites unable to sleep and praying and reading scripture as they awaited their deliverance from Egypt.

Passover, Unleaven, First Fruits are all part of the Passover 7 day long celebration known as Passover.

The Last Supper/Passover Meal

Jewish observance.

- The unleavened bread of the Last Supper is the Afikomen of Passover, it is broken in two. Half is wrapped in white linen and hidden. The children search for the unleavened bread in the white linen, and whoever finds it brings it back to be redeemed for a price. The other half of the bread is eaten, ending the meal.

The Feast of Unleavened Bread...

Eating of Unleavened Bread lasts for seven days. It begins with the Passover meal in the evening the day before the Crucifixion/ Unleaven Festival.

Summary.

Yahshua gave a very strict warning to all believers and therefore christian's who partake in the bread and wine

in remembrance of the death and resurrection of our Saviour, do this at their own peril. This memorial is entwined with the festival of unleaven bread. It requires strict repentance and order to remove sin during a one week observance and eat only unleaven bread.

This memorial of the death and resurrection states that every-time you take the bread and wine, you also stop eating leaven bread for 7 days.

This proves to be a problem for those religions who now seem to take the bread and wine every week or every month, so that would mean they could seldom eat normal bread.

Clearly the Passover celebration and partaking of bread and wine in remembrance of our Passover lamb, and Yahshua's blood shed for us, was to be an annual observance and is part of the Passover festival that has very significant meaning.

Yahshua washed the disciple's feet and commanded we do this also at Passover.

Included in this Passover observance was the washing of each other's feet.

John 13:12-21 (KJV) So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

¹³ Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

¹⁴ If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

¹⁵ For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

¹⁶ Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

¹⁷ If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

John 13:8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

Washing of the feet is a vitally important part of the festival, which means that every time we celebrate the Passover we must be free of eating unleaven bread for 7 days and that we wash one another's feet. This is clearly not a weekly or even monthly celebration and those participating unworthily will have no part of His Kingdom.

Now Christians for the most part have dropped off the 7-day festival observance, and just have a Friday and Sunday version. They take the bread and wine part, using bread with leaven or any type of bread they forget to do the foot washing, yet when Peter tried to avoid having his feet washed Jesus said that He had no part with Him, if he did not participate. John 13:8.

We have been warned about adding to or taking from scripture? Yet it seems modern Christianity has dropped out whole portions of very significant observance. They have also dropped of any fear of the Lord and just worship their own way. This is reminiscent of the Israelites who worshipped their own way the moment Moses wasn't watching them and it resulted in YWHY removing their names from His book.

Questions to ask your-self. Who are you following? Yahshua or the traditions of men?

If you are not following the biblical word, about the Passover, and feast of un-leaven, first fruits, all tied together into a 7-day festival, then you are following the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church who Daniel clearly identify as the beast and he told us it could be recognised for the fact it changed times and laws.

It is the Lawless church. Those who align with it are the protestant denominations who are mentioned in Revelation as the harlot daughters.

It is only for Israel has been an excuse that I have heard many times. If that is the case, then why did Paul tell us to keep the feast on unleaven with Passover?.

The Mother of Harlots.

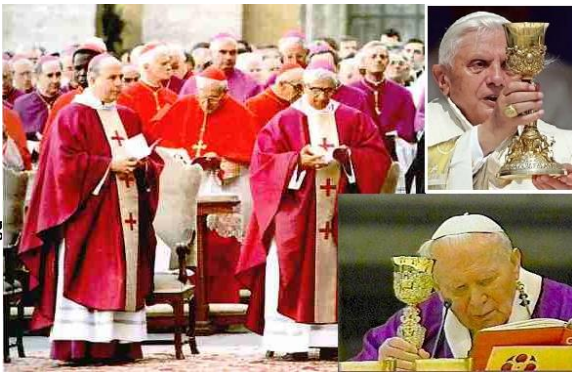

A woman which is called the great whore, Mystery Babylon, and the mother of harlots. The woman is the Catholic Church with its uniting with false religions of the world, instigated by the antichrist. The “scarlet beast” is the power of the united governments under one ruler that will rule the world. This ruler (Anti-Christ) will use this “Whore” to get power and to unite the world, yet in the end both will fall.

We see the Pope now bringing all religions in under him to form a one world religion. He has leaders of governments and religious leaders alike all aligning with him and under his control.

“And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication” (Rev 17:4

THE VATICAN SYSTEM IS THE ONLY WORLD STRUCTURE THAT IS A WOMAN (church), WEARS PURPLE AND SCARLET, USES A GOLDEN CUP FILLED WITH WINE, HAS SHED THE BLOOD OF millions of BIBLE, BELIEVING SAINTS, AND HAS BECOME INDESCRIBABLY WEALTHY THROUGH RULING OVER THE KINGS OF THE EARTH.

FOR STARTERS, THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IS NOT NOW NOR EVER WAS CHRISTIAN BY ANY KIND OF BIBLICAL DEFINITION

Biblically, the Church of Yahshua began at Pentecost which started in the book of Acts between chapters 2-15.

The Roman Catholic Church did not get its start until the year 325 AD with the edict of Constantine. That's roughly a 250-year discrepancy between the two. The early Church and the Roman Church became intertwined when Rome declared Christianity to be the state religion and performed a hostile takeover.

This is the start of the Dark Ages. For 1,200 years, the Roman church made it a crime punishable by death if you dared to own a Bible, read a Bible, or attempt to decide for yourself what it meant.

Forcing priests to act on your behalf of which Yahshua came to remove, becoming our High Priest to intercede for us forever.

Starting in the late 1970's to early '80's, the Vatican made a concerted effort to rebrand themselves as “christian” and began to form alliances with the Pentecostals and charismatic churches that were heavily focused on feelings and emotions, and not so much on Bible doctrine.

“And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits” (Rev 17:9)

Rome today is called the city of seven hills and the Vatican (The Woman, Harlot) sits in Rome even until today.

“And I heard another voice from heaven, saying Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities (Rev 18:4-5)

We need to separate ourselves from the Catholic Church influence and any ecumenical movement related to her. Today we see many of the break-away protestant churches and denominations falling right back into the Catholic Church's grip. They are calling for unity and “tearing down the walls” borders are being pushed through with the Pope calling us all to come together united in peace.

They are forming a one world religion, all under the Roman Catholic Church.

If you cannot see the dangers in aligning to a false corrupt religion who has changed the times and laws of YHWY, then you are part of the great apostasy spoken of. No one can serve two masters, you are either with YHWY or you are following the traditions of men.

Wicked men who have contrived and devised an evil corrupt religion to deceive the whole world. Those protestant churches aligning with it are the daughters of the harlot.

“Come out of her my People!”

The last Trumpet call is going out just prior to the great and terrible day of the Lord. Yahshau said, “My sheep hear my voice.”

Whose voice are you listening to?

We need Yahshua’s atoning blood to cleanse us of those sins. We have to let Him come in to live inside of us, in the form of the Holy Spirit, where He can slowly find all that yeast and "burn it up". He burns up the sin just like the families burn up the left-over yeast before the Passover festival.

We need Yahshua, so we can live this "yeast-less" lifestyle. But even then, it will be a daily process, because yeast/sin permeates this world.

This feast is the perfect celebration of our Saviour whose body was broken and blood was shed for our sins.

2. Read Exodus 13:3-16, Leviticus 23:6-8, Deuteronomy 16:8 & John 6:51

3. Clean out the yeast from your house for these seven days, that commemorate Passover/unleaven.

Matthew 7:21-23 I Never Knew You

²¹“Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. ²²Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’ ²³And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!’

We Keep His laws, because we love Him, we show that through our obedience to His commands.

Why we should not follow the traditions of men.

1. He commanded us not to follow the traditions of men. (Obedience). Mark 7:7-13 (KJV) Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

2. Just as He warned Peter, unless you worship me by following my instructions, then you are not mine.

John 14:15-31 If ye love me, keep my commandments.
